

Bullied, harassed or penalised by your job agent?

You are not alone.

Join the Australian Unemployed Workers' Union and Fight Back!

Become a member for free by visiting our website, at Facebook or by phoning us.

Unity creates strength! Together we can build a powerful voice to stop privately-owned job agencies bullying unemployed workers.

The $6.8 billion Employment Services Industry is out of control! Job agencies create nothing except misery for those forced under their regime.

Join us to demand: Support our fellow Australians and stop penalising them.
Real jobs! Real vocational training. Real social safety net!

Have you or a loved one already been abused by this dysfunctional system? Then you know first hand that the $6.8 billion Employment Services Industry:

- creates no jobs
- does little to help people find jobs or further training
- is good at punishing the disadvantaged
- keeps workers with (often precarious) employment fearful of speaking out

The AUWU demands the Employment Services Industry be scrapped and the government-run Commonwealth Employment Service be brought back.

Join us today and receive:

- Free access to our National Advocacy Hotline and support in dealings with your Job Agent
- An organised platform to fight for the rights and dignity of unemployed workers
- Access to our growing list of allies who are united in our struggle for fairness
- Print copies of our leaflets and posters to distribute.
